

CIRAD

Centre de Coopération Internationale en Recherche Agronomique pour le Développement

France

Nadine Zakhia-Rozis

www.cirad.fr

Cirad at a glance

Research institution working through international cooperation

Scope : Sustainable development of Agricultural and Food Systems - Natural Resource Management

Number of Staff: 1800 (800 scientists among which 200 outposted abroad)

Number of supervised students: 335 PhD

No delivery of Degrees but association with Montpellier SupAgro and universities

Main international activities in Asia/Europe (data 2010)

Collaborations with Thailand, Laos, Vietnam, Cambodia and Indonesia

Construction and Participation in joint master degrees (Infectious diseases, Rubber science)

4 joint research platforms (joint projects, staff exchange, PhD and master supervision, co-publications)

2 official representatives of Cirad (Indonesia and Vietnam)

29 staff outposted to Asia

Stay of 8 PhD and 26 scientists from Asia in Montpellier

Offers for incoming students

Laboratory and field facilities (Montpellier and French overseas locations)

Scientific supervision and training

Access to libraries and on-line documentary resources

Access to the international platform on temperate and tropical Agriculture, located in Montpellier

Links with other institutions in France

Links with the international research system on agriculture (CGIAR, GFAR, international networks)